

Mike Neville's

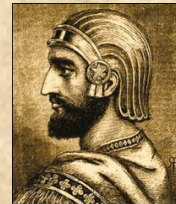

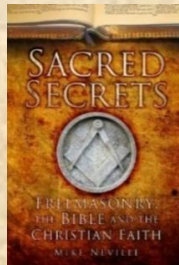

Walks, Talks & Books

Red Cross Tour - British Museum

See artefacts linked to Red Cross of Constantine & Masonic ritual

Exhibits linked to Constantine the Great
Ancient Egyptian influences on Freemasonry
Items touched by Cyrus & Nehemiah
Titus – Destroyer of the Second Temple
Proof of the existence of Biblical characters, such as King Uzziah
Roman Emperors at the time of Christ
AND learn about the Masons linked to the Museum

Author of "Sacred Secrets" and expert on Biblical & Masonic matters, III Kt Mike Neville, will guide you around the Museum on:

Sunday 6th December 2026

Meet at 11.30am on the steps to the main entrance (3rd pillar on left – as shown in image above). Avoid bringing large bags, due to security and give yourself 15 minutes to get through the bag check.

Cost £15 each – non-Masons welcome. A pub lunch to continue discussions can be arranged - £20 per person. Tour takes about 90 minutes. To book contact:

mrmikeneville@aol.com

See our ceremonies come alive!